Chili Situation.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Official confirmation of Balmaceda's fall reached the State and Navy Departments this morning. Acting Secretary Wharton received the following cablegram, dated August 30th, 9:30 p. m., signed by McCree, Consul:

"Balmaceda turned over the government to Baez and fled. Canto goes to Santiago to-night to resume control until the arrival of the Junta from Iquique. Good order here."

Acting Secretary Soley also received the following cablegram from Admiral Brown, dated Valparaiso August 30th: "The President of Chili surrendered the government to the Chilean General, Baez, and he has left Santiago. Valparaiso is well organized. Foreign forces have re-embarked."

The above is somewhat obscure, but it is interpreted at the departments to mean that the police force in Valparaiso is so well organized as to relieve the foreign admirals of further necessity for keeping their marines on shore duty.

There has been no news from Chili received by Minister Lanza since this morning. The Minister denied himself to newspaper reporters, but sent out word to the above effect by his servant.

The Chilean Congressional envoys are also without any news thus far today relative to affairs in Chili, although they do not expect any detailed news of the movements of troops or happenings of more important events, they do expect brief advice when matters of unusual importance occur.

Senor Montt, principal envoy, refused to discuss his future actions toward attempting to receive recognition for the Constitutional government from the United States. When spoken to about the matter to-day, he said in effect that he was willing to tell what was going on in Chili, but that he begged to be excused from telling what was going on in Washington. Senor Montt expects the Junta, which left Iquique for Santiago, to reach Valparaiso in about three days. The distance, he says, is between eight and nine hundred miles.

Cause of Success.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—The World prints as a Valparaiso special a statement that the insurgents owe their success, in a great measure, to the skill and experience of Col. Keogh, who was brought from Germany by the Chilean government as an instructor in modern warfare, but who quarreled with Balmaceda and gave his services to the opposite side. The fighting was not only fierce but fateful. The bodies of the Balmaceda Generals, Barbosa and Alcega, who were in the hottest part of the engagement, were frightfully mutilated. At sundown a riotous mob of laborers united with the rabble of deserters from the government, set fires and looted many buildings on the outer ends of the city belonging to Balmaceda's partisans. Fourteen fires raged last night, but are now under control. Two million dollars worth of property was destroyed. The city rang all last night with the roar of rifles, and this morning the bodies of 200 rioters and pillagers littered the streets.

Double Murder.

HARTFORD (Conn.), Aug. 31.—A double murder was discovered in Bloomfield this morning, when the bodies of a German farmer and his wife were found in a well. It is supposed they were killed by Italian laborers employed in the vicinity.

Abduction Not in It.

BOSTON, Aug. 31.—It is given out here on good authority that the reported contest for the Denver & Rio Grande between the Vanderbilts and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy and Atchison, has no basis of fact so far as Atchison is concerned.

Union Pacific Affairs.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Important developments in the affairs of the Union Pacific Railroad are expected this week. Says the Times: A meeting of the recently appointed financing committee, of which J. Pierpont Morgan is the head, will be held to-day or to-morrow in this city. The probable outcome of the meeting may be of greater significance than the mere putting into effect of a scheme for carrying the floating debt. The rumors that the Vanderbilts are to take control of the property are received with serious consideration in Wall street, where Pierpont Morgan's close relations with the Vanderbilts are duly appreciated. It is well known that when the Gould-Dillon contingent first approached Morgan with a request for aid in straightening out the finances of the Union Pacific company, they met with a chilling reception. When finally Morgan consented to take charge of the scheme for temporarily disposing of $19,000,000 floating debt, it transpired that he obtained concessions which practically put him in control of the property.

Wheat Market.

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—Wheat opened excited and higher this morning, all the way from 101 3/4 to 101 3/8 against 99 3/4 on Saturday; after fluctuating considerably, December advanced to 104 3/4. At 1 o'clock stronger cables and receipts of figures from Vienna showing the shortage in the world's crop of wheat to be 90,000,000 bushels and in rye of 330,000,000 bushels, were the cause of higher prices.

Shortly before noon Rumsey Bros., a long established commission firm, notified those having trades with them to close them out. The announcement had no effect upon the market, as the firm has been doing only a very small commission business at late.

Secret Order of Boomers.

ARKANSAS CITY (Kan.), Aug. 21.—It is learned to-day that a "secret order of boomers" is organized all along the border of Southern Kansas. Already over 3,000 members are sworn in. They propose to arm themselves early in October and make a raid on the Cherokee Strip. They will burn the grass, kill cattle and make a determined stand to hold the strip for homes.

Bonds for Schools.

WINTERS (Cal.), Aug. 31.—The election to bond Winters' School District for $15,000 held Saturday, resulted in favor of the bonds by a majority of 138. The total vote was 147. A two-story brick building containing rooms will be built.

An Extra Session.

NASHVILLE (Tenn.), Aug. 31.—An extra session of General Assembly convened to-day, and after listening to the reading of the Governor's message adjourned till to-morrow.

War-Ship Waiting Word.

KIEL, Aug. 31.—The new Chilean war-ship President Pinto has sailed and is ready for sea. Her commander is awaiting instructions from Chili before leaving this port.

Stocking a Range.

The Eureka Sentinel says: George W. Grayson, the millionaire, and one of the largest land owners in the west, and "father of the Humboldt Land and Cattle Company" at Beowawe, is making arrangements to ship 3,000 head of stock cattle from one of his ranges in New Mexico to his ranch at Beowawe, where he has plenty of feed to put them in good condition for market. To make his change of cattle he will require eight trains of 19 cars each, and will cost $1,500 for railroad charges.

Card of Thanks.

Thanks to the members of Amity Lodge No. 8, Knights of Pythias, for the noble and devoted attention bestowed upon our late son and brother during his illness, and for the last honors at his grave. The blessings of his bereaved parents and relatives are tendered with grateful hearts.

Serious Losses Sustained by

A Captain of Courage.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—The incident which occurred at Port La Libertad in the republic of Salvador ten days ago bore some resemblance to the Barrandia affair which happened on the steamer Acapulco in San Jose De Guatemala during the late war between Salvador and Guatemala. One of the parties concerned in this case, however, was an American citizen. The result might have been the same, as in the Barrandia case, had it not been for the prompt and decisive action of the captain of the American steamer. The Pacific Mail Steamship Company's steamer, City of Panama, which runs between Panama and Acapulco, Mexico, stopped at Corinto, Nicaragua, August 5th, on her regular north bound trip. "Among the passengers she took on there were Patrick Brennan, an American citizen residing in Salvador, and four native Salvadorians, all former officers of that government. These men had incurred the displeasure of President Ezeta and were regarded by him as revolutionists. The steamer stopped at La Libertad August 8th and was boarded by the authorities, who demanded of Captain White the surrender of Brennan and his four companions.

The refusal of the captain to comply was reported to the commandante, who immediately went to the steamer with a boat-load of armed men and informed Captain White that the latter could consider himself, under his orders, as he had come to take possession of the steamer and arrest the men.

Captain White's indignation was aroused and he told the commandante if he didn't leave the steamer at once he would throw him overboard.

The commandante evidently believed the threat would be carried out, for he left the steamer without further discussion.

Learning that President Ezeta had been notified and that he had gone to Acapulco with a large armed force, Captain White avoided that port and the vessel proceeded direct to San Jose de Guatemala. Captain White and Mr. Brennan laid the facts before United States Minister Pacheco at the city of Guatemala. Ezeta has requested the authorities of Guatemala to surrender the men.

Brennan is a railroad conductor and resided in Salvador for some time. During the late war with Guatemala, at Ezeta's request, he accepted a commission in the Salvadoran army, and enlisting his railroad employees, was instrumental in winning one or more battles.

When the revolution was threatened in Salvador some time later, it is said Ezeta again desired his services. Brennan declined to enlist, and it is supposed, thus incurred Ezeta's displeasure. The four Salvadorians whom Ezeta wished to seize were Don Ayala, claiming to be the legally elected President of Salvador, but who has been deprived of the office; General L. Letona, Commander-in-Chief of the Salvadorian army in 1885, but who has been in exile for the past five years; General L. Hernandez, a wealthy exile, and Colonel M. Rivas of the Salvadorian army, a nephew of General Rivas, who was executed by Ezeta's orders for the part which he took in the late civil insurrection.

Sultan Bow to the Czar.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 31.—The Sultan has yielded to all the Russian demands respecting the Dardanelles, which henceforth will be opened to Russian vessels when closed to all others. The Sultan abjectly apologized for the recent detention of Russian vessels and dismissed all officers responsible therefor, and promised indemnity.

Fire in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND (Ohio), Aug. 31.—An alarm of fire just called a large number of engines and the fireboat to the refineries of the Standard Oil Works. The extent of the fire cannot be learned at present, though it is reported there has been an explosion and the burning oil is running into the river.

Destructive Fire.

WINNEMUCCA, Aug. 31.—A fire started at 5:30 o'clock p. m. yesterday in Winnemucca and in a short time destroyed three blocks in the business part of the city. The fire broke out in the yard back of John Smith's shoe store, and before the alarm could be given, his whole building was in flames. The water supply was short and proved to give but little assistance in putting out the fire, and in a few minutes the whole block between Third and Fourth streets was being devoured by the fire fiend. Nothing was saved on the east side of Bridge street, from 3rd to 5th, and on the west side, from 3rd to 4th, except the First National Bank building, it receiving but slight damage. The largest sufferers were N. Levy & Co., F. M. Fellows, George A. Lathes, Masonic Hall Association, M. Hoffman, Chris Diehl, Henry Busch, M. S. Bonfield and the Silver State Publishing Co. Total loss, about two hundred thousand dollars; insurance, about sixty-five thousand.

More Victims.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Mayor Grant made a personal visit to the scene of the Park Place disaster to-day. He found, while looking through the debris, the bodies of two victims badly charred and mutilated. He then issued directions that all the debris be cleared away at once. The first body was that of Abraham Derkaveritch, an employee of the Bronze Leaf factory, and the other that of a man named Blits, who also worked in the establishment. When the news spread that more bodies were found, large crowds of people again congregated about the ruins to watch the searches. Two more bodies are supposed to be underneath the sidewalk in the vaults, but could not be seen.

Murderers Shot.

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—A dispatch from Monroe, Michigan, says on Saturday afternoon at a farm house near there John Wilkinson and wife were tortured and murdered by tramps, who tried to get the money which they were supposed to have. A son of the farmer gave the alarm and the neighborhood organized and went to their relief, but found the couple dead when they reached the house. The tramps were sighted near Maybee station and both shot down by the infuriated citizens.

American Hog in It.

BERLIN, Aug. 31.—It is reported in Hamburg that all restrictions on American pork will be removed to-morrow. United States Minister Phelps when questioned upon the subject smilingly refused to confirm the report. It is known, however, that Phelps in his last dispatch to the German Foreign Office intimates plainly that the patience of President Harrison and Secretary Blaine would not last beyond September.

Steamer Starr Seized.

PORT TOWNSEND, Aug. 31.—The American steamer, George E. Starr, plying daily between Port Angeles, Port Townsend and Victoria, was seized this morning by the revenue cutter Wolcott for smuggling Chinese into the United States from British Columbia. Several Chinese were found aboard who said they were taken aboard by officers of the vessel at Victoria.

Mill May Stop.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 31.—A committee from the Nijni-Novgorod Fair have resolved to request the Minister of Finance to come to a speedy solution of the question of instituting export bounties for cotton products. Unless a new outlet for Russian manufacturers is thus created there will be a wholesale dismissal of workmen from the Russian mills.

Colliery Disaster.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—An explosion took place this morning in the Malago colliery, near Redminster, Somersetshire. Seven miners were killed and two others are missing and about a dozen others seriously injured.

The People to Pay.

PARIS, Aug. 31.—It is reported here that Henry E. Abbey is in negotiation for the purchase of the Mariposa steamer to convey Mme. Bernhardt and company in their coming tour around the world.

Chico Races.

CHICO, Aug. 31.—The last heat and race, postponed last Saturday, to be run this morning, on account of the darkness, was won by Our Dick. Time, 2:18.

Grain Market.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 31.—Wheat, buyer '91, $1.75 1/2; season, $1.83 1/2.

The Dardanelles.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—The St. James Gazette this evening holds the submission of the Porte to the Russian demands, establishes a precedent which permits Russian war-ships to use the passage of the Dardanelles as they please, while the war-ships of other nations must not enter these straits. This news, therefore, according to the paper, is by far the gravest published for some time.

G. A. R. Officers.

ALBANY (N. Y.), Aug. 31.—Captain Palmer, Commander-in-Chief G. A. R. of the United States, to-day made the following staff appointments: Senior Aide-de-Camp, C. Hall Grant; D. U. Quick, Brooklyn, Assistant Adjutant General.

One Way to Wealth.

It is a dull boy who now lives in Nevada if he dies poor or ignorant. With the present means of obtaining accurate knowledge and cheap books, ten minutes a day properly spent will educate him creditably, and a few dollars put into land or lots now will make him comfortable in his old age. The changes of fifty years in a new country are simply wonderful, and yet not one person in fifty can seem to anticipate them. Within a generation land in all the country west of the Allegheny mountains has gone from government price to its present figures. Now it ranges from a few dollars in the bad spots up to millions an acre where cities have grown up. When this process first began the settlers saw nothing of this. Once in a while a man would be heard to prophesy a rise in values, but even he would not act upon his belief. Occasionally a stock man or a creditor would be forced to hold land and he would get the benefits of all the growth around him.

With the resources of a region like that around us lying all undeveloped, to be picked up for a song, any boy can lay the foundation of a fortune with a few months saving. There are lots to be had in Reno at bedrock prices, which can be paid for on the installment plan at from two to ten dollars a month, that will be covered with brick blocks some day. There is land in sight of town equal to any now under cultivation that will be sold for a song which has a fortune in each quarter section, four clerks and mechanics will put a few dollars each month, a very few, into some permanent investment it will multiply steadily, and at times rapidly. They can buy what they can afford to keep without embarrassing them and earn enough to pay the taxes year after year. Such methods are far better than to indulge in habits of personal extravagance or games of chance. A good, sensible beginning is made and many temptations removed from the path.

There are those perhaps who will say money so invested is thrown away; that the country will not improve and we have no future. Such persons need only glance at history. All other States have gone ahead, and so will Nevada. Its growth is not that of its sisters, but it has the foundation for a State and the world needs it. Our rich lands and flowing waters will be called for sooner or later, and when they fill up values will rise. Suppose Reno were doubled, what would be the effect on this valley? Every acre would be worth several times what it is now. The lesson has been taught in every land beneath the sun and is being worked out again before our eyes. Only the blind do not see it.

WITH the exception of the semitropical fruits, Colorado bids fair to rival California as an horticultural State.

Like Nevada, she is remarkable in the production of grain, still more so in the production of all the various fruits, and her grape culture is her greatest marvel. Her wines are shipped to Europe and thence back to this country, labeled foreign wines, and the success of the ruse proves the value of the product.

In some particulars, Colorado excels California. For instance that State will never see the day when she can produce as fine apples as Colorado. But very few years will pass until Colorado will furnish her people with all the fruits and vegetables they may demand, besides entering into active competition with her sunset sister for other markets.

GOVERNOR MURPHY, of Arizona, was feasted at Bath Beach, the other night, says the Pittsburg Telegraph, and in a speech on irrigation he referred to the great Arizona canal, forty-two miles in length, and irrigating 100,000 acres of land, the value of which has been increased by irrigation from $600,000 to $4,000,000, or $40 per acre.

IRISH ANTIQUITIES.

A Rare Relic Brought Up from the Bottom of Lough Erne.

During the progress of the Lough Erne drainage works, says the Fermanagh (Ireland) Times, some rare and interesting relics of bygone ages were discovered, but these sink into insignificance when compared with a recent find which was dredged by fishermen accidentally from the bottom of the lower Erne from a depth of between twenty and thirty feet from the surface of the lake. This most interesting relic has been secured by Mr. Plunkett, M. R. A., who intends resending a paper descriptive of it before the Royal Society of Antiquaries at their meeting next summer. This rare find is a very ancient catechism or shrine seven inches long and about six and a half inches high and four inches broad at the base. The interior was carved out of yew wood and the exterior is composed of bronze and beautifully decorated. There was a small bronze box inside the shrine, which appeared to be hermetically sealed when perfect. In this the sacred object was deposited, which, unfortunately, was either lost or decomposed by the action of carbonic acid in the water.

In shape the shrine resembles the little stone-roofed churches or oratories which were erected between the seventh and tenth centuries, and were contemporaneous with the building of the round towers. The ridge of the roof of the shrine is surmounted longitudinally by a billet of bronze, the front side of which is very artistically adorned with various types of interlaced patterns, which are displayed in sections. There are three raised bosses on the front of this house-shaped shrine—a large one situated on the roof and two smaller ones on the front. The one on the roof is composed of bronze and circular in form, with an amber bead in the center, which is surrounded with exquisitely designed and delicately formed interlacing. There were several smaller amber and glass beads inlaid or inserted here and there in the bronze ornaments in order to embellish the interlacing. In the two bronze interlaced ornaments, on the ends of the shrine, were inserted two beads of translucent glass. From the style of art displayed in the ornamentation of this very interesting relic, it cannot be older than the ninth, and certainly not later than the eleventh century.

NO RICHES FOR HIM.

How One Philosopher Was Impressed at the Stock Exchange.

He stood in the gallery of the stock exchange, leaning over the railing and gazing on the animated scene below, says the New York Recorder.

Something had happened. What it was no casual observer unacquainted with all the phases of the market could tell. But at any rate the men on the floor below were acting like so many howling derelicts.

As the man looked down he chuckled and laughed gleefully. He was a shabby man and not in any way presentable, but he was happier than he appeared to be. Presently there was a lull in the storm below and the happy man turned to a man at his side.

"Member of the exchange?" he asked.
"No."
"Wealthy man?"
"No."
"Just as I thought. Now, do I look like a wealthy man?"
"Just so. You're right. Now do I look like a man that was ever likely to get rich?"
"See here, my friend," said the other, "I don't know what you're driving at, but to be frank with you I think that you look as though you are as little likely to get rich through any labor of your own as any man I've seen."

"Just so," said the happy man, cheerily. "My thoughts exactly. You're right every time. Now I'm not rich—haven't a copper. I never expect to be rich—not built that way. Am I right?"

"It looks that way."
"Certainly it does. Now most of the time I don't want to be rich. But man is weak and open to temptation, and sometimes I'm tempted. Then do you know what I do? No, of course not. Well, I come down here to this place and see what blasted fools men that are rich and mean that want to be made of themselves over the matter, and that settles it. No Jay Gould business in mine. You couldn't advance ten cents? No? Well, never mind. I'm above worrying over such trifles. I wouldn't be rich for a million dollars."

And with this rather mixed assertion the philosopher drifted away, still smiling.

A DESERVED REBUKE.

The Painful Predicament of a Pair of Chattering Young Women.

A pair of chattering young women met with a deserved rebuke the other evening at the commencement exercises of the Brooklyn high school. As the different young men appeared on the platform to deliver their orations these young women kept up a running fire of comment and criticism most annoying to persons near. A gentleman sitting just in front of them looked around several times and frowned sharply at the continued buzzing, without, however, producing any appreciable effect. At length a young speaker came upon the stage in whom the gentleman was evidently interested. If possible, rear conversation was noisier than at any preceding moment, and nobody in the vicinity regretted when the gentleman squared himself about and said, in a voice loud enough to be heard up and down the line:

"The lad speaking is my nephew. I will be obliged if you will allow me to hear him."

The silence that followed could be felt.

The Result of Indecision
"He that will not when he may," is likely to repent his indecision for many a long day afterwards. A lady who had spent a weary hour in "beating down" a salesman at a Turkish shop in Paris, returned the next day prepared to purchase. "I believe you said twenty francs," she began taking out her purse. "Ninety, madam!" answered the smiling Turk. "But you came down to twenty!" "Ah, that was yesterday, madam. Everything goes up again in the night!"

The Druggists

In Lowell, Mass., agree in saying that they sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than all other blood purifiers. For instance: F. G. GOODALE: I sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than all other blood purifiers.

A. W. DOWS & CO.: Hood's takes the lead of all other Sarsaparillas.

C. F. BLANCHARD: We sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than of any similar.

MARSTON & SEAW: With us the sale of Hood's is 9 to 1 of any other kind.

F. & E. BAILEY & CO.: Hood's Sarsaparilla is one of the best medicines.

CARROLL & HOBBS: Hood's Sarsaparilla is one of the best medicines we have. Its sale increases every year.

F. P. MOORE: We sell twice as much of Hood's Sarsaparilla as of anything similar.

C. A. SWAN: Hood's is the most popular Sarsaparilla of the day.

Many other druggists speak similarly. This popularity at home, where Hood's Sarsaparilla and its proprietors have been known for many years, could not continue if the medicine did not possess merit. And these facts should certainly convince people in other sections of the country that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a good, reliable medicine.

What Brandreth's Pills Do.

In Brandreth's Pills the true life medicine has been found, composed as they are of numerous vegetables so combined that each multiplies the virtues of the rest. They never can do any harm. Their action is always the same, no matter how long or in what doses they are taken. They purge away the waste particles of the system. They recruit the animal vigor and arrest the progress of decay. They purify the blood. They stimulate the liver and invigorate digestion. They open the pores. They make the bowels do the work of the kidneys, thus giving the organs an oft-needed rest. One or two at night for a week will demonstrate their power and are generally sufficient to cure ordinary diseases.

Remarkable Recovery.

Mrs. Michaela Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she had a hopeless case of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and in a few days she found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. — Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at W. Pinniger's Drug Store, large bottles 50c and $1.00.

A Cure for Sick Headache.

This distressing complaint is due to an inactive or sluggish liver with constipated bowels which deranges the stomach and disturbs the nervous system, causes dizziness and an oppressive dull pain in the head, often so severe as to prevent all rest or sleep. One of Dr. Cass's Improved Liver Pills will relieve you of all the pain and misery and a few more doses will correct the liver and stomach and regulate the bowels. While these pills are small, easily taken, and mild and gentle in their action there is no medicine made that will so effectually cure sick headache. 25 cents a box. Sold by J. B. McCullough.

Happy Mothers.

Wm. Timmons, Postmaster of Idaho, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from kidney and liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman of same place, says: "Find the Electric Bitter to be the best liver and kidney medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50c a bottle at Wm. Pinniger's drug store."

A PALEONTOLOGICAL FIND.

Lander, the Mother of Counties. Dates back to the Quaternary Age. The following from the Central Nevada is the best snake story of the season. The report says:

A correspondent of Jersey, forty miles south of Battle Mountain, writes us that an interesting discovery has just been made by the parties who have the lease of the Jersey mine. Messrs. Abel and Sturgeon, while running a drift, uncovered an immense slab of what appeared to be limestone. While preparing to blast it out of the way, their attention was directed to peculiar lines in the mass, which on closer examination proved to be the fossil remains of a gigantic reptile. With considerable labor they succeeded in removing and clearing the mass. Fortunately, members of the Smithsonian expedition, who were on the way from Death Valley, camped for the night close by, upon being informed of the find, rode to the mine and made an examination. They readily identified it as the pterodactyl, a reptile whose remains are found only in the rocks of the Colville formation. What makes the discovery more valuable, the formation in which it was found is very rare in America, only faint traces having been found previously.

Our correspondent describes the animal, in its apparent monotony, as a cross between a bird and a reptile—the body resembles that of a bird, while the head appears as that of an alligator. The total length is 7 feet, 4 inches, of which the head measures 3 feet, 1 inch. The wing bones, or rather the bones of the arms, for they terminate in fingers, are five feet long. But the most curious thing is an elongated bone, corresponding to the little finger of the hand, evidently used to support the wings. The length of this bone is something over 6 feet, while not much thicker than a common bamboo fishing rod; to which it bears some resemblance. The leg bones resemble those of a monstrous frog. The head is out of all proportion and armed with teeth five inches long.

But two other specimens have ever been discovered, and they were unearthed in France, though a pair of finger bones were found at Phoenixville, Pa.

The fossil has been purchased for the Smithsonian Institute at Washington, to which place it will be forwarded. This find is undoubtedly the most valuable made by the party on their long journey to and from Death Valley.

BURIAL SERVICES.

By the Knights of Pythias, Over the Grave of the Late Morris Davis.

Yesterday the Knights of Pythias held the burial services of the Order over the grave of their late brother, Morris Davis. The Knights of Amity Lodge No. 8, to the number of 25, congregated at their Castle Hall, and marched in a body to the Jewish cemetery on the hillside north of town. Carriages conveyed the ladies and floral offerings which had been prepared at the instance of the lodge, while a number of other carriages conveyed relatives and friends. On arrival at the cemetery the floral pieces, emblematic of the order, were placed on the grave, and were so large and numerous as to entirely conceal it from view. The beautiful and impressive burial service of the Order was then pronounced by Brother Knight C. A. Jones in the capacity of Prelate, after which the Knights returned to their Castle Hall and dispersed. This was the only outward tribute they could render to the memory of their departed brother, and the impressive and effective manner in which they performed their task was a source of satisfaction to sorrowing relatives and friends, and a credit to the Order.

NEVADA LAND.

Combined With Low Prices and Good Climate, Will Attract Attention.

The Carson Appeal has heretofore mentioned the purchase of a ranch in Smith's Valley by a Mr. Ashby of Nebraska, and that paper of yesterday says:

Yesterday in conversation with the writer, Mr. Ashby stated that he had gone to California looking for an investment, and after carefully examining various sections of California he had determined upon some investigation of Nevada land. He said: "I was turned away from California by the high price of land, the prevailing climate and the low figures which almost every farm produce commands. I found in Smith Valley, in your State, exactly what I wanted—cheap land, extraordinary soil, a dry, beautiful climate, and, in fact, everything that a man in any business could ask for. The State ought to be the best stock raising country in the world. I am astonished that its advantages are not better known. People in the east regard it as a desert of sand and sagebrush, but I don't find it so."

Bain's Vineyard Laborers.

Nearly 4,000 men in all have already been contracted for from the Chinese employment agencies at Fresno. They will come from San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento, Los Angeles and all the small stations north and south of Fresno. The grape crop this year will be larger than ever, and consequently the number of men required to gather it will be correspondingly greater.

It has been found impossible by vineyardists to procure white help in sufficient numbers to gather the crops, and, although every effort was made by the large growers to avoid the course, it has been found a matter of necessity to hire Chinese. White help is in great demand at present, and idle men are rarely to be seen on the streets of Fresno.

Railroad Changes.

On Sunday Superintendent J. A. Fillmore passed over the S. P. R. R. in his private car, as a special, to place in charge as Division Superintendent of the Truckee division, Mr. Fraser, who succeeds Jas. Agler. Mr. Agler is to be promoted and will assume charge of the Shasta division.

A WASHOE PIONEER.

And a Pioneer of the West. Who Added in Building Her Empire. John H. Snodgrass, whose picture is given herewith, was one of the pioneers of Washoe county. He died at his residence on the Truckee Meadows on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, Aug. 30, 1891. He was born in Henry county, Indiana, May 17, 1817, and lived in different parts of that State until the year 1850, when he emigrated to California. He engaged in mining at Poor Man's creek, and in the fall of 1851 returned to his home in Rochester, Indiana. In 1852 he returned to California with his brother, crossing the plains with an ox team and arriving in Marysville Oct. 14, 1852. He again engaged in mining at French Corral, and afterwards at Grass Valley and other places. In 1857 he and his brother moved to Washoe county, Nev., and engaged in lumbering at Galena and at Dog Valley. In 1862 he moved to Log Valley and engaged in farming, where he remained until 1884, when he moved to Reno and purchased the farm where he resided until his death. He became an Odd Fellow at Rochester, Indiana, in 1847, and was instrumental in organizing several lodges in California and Nevada. He was a charter member of Washoe Lodge and an active member during its palmy days. In 1884 he became a member of Reno Lodge No. 19, under whose auspices he will be buried on Tuesday, September 1, 1891. He was married at Galena in 1864, but lost his wife in 1884.

FREE TRANSPORTATION.

On Shipments for Exhibition to the Nevada State Fair. The S. P. R. R. Co. has issued a circular to intending exhibitors, of which the following is the most important: Shipments for exhibition at the Nevada State Fair should be way-billed to Reno at regular rates, consigned to the exhibitor, and charges collected on delivery.

RETURNING. Consignees or exhibitors must surrender to this company's agent, when returning shipment, the expense-bill showing charges to the fair, accompanied with certificate of the secretary of the association, the latter setting forth that property has been on exhibition and not charged hands, when consignment will be forwarded to original shipping point free of charge. Agent must note on way-bill reference to original billing, also, "Inward expense-bill and secretary's certificate taken up."

Reno agent will refund all charges for transportation to the fair by F. 13, attaching thereto original expense-bill, secretary's certificate and receipt of consignee or exhibitor on Form F. 77, and forward all to freight auditor with daily report in the usual manner. This applies only to shipments originating in Nevada and is practically free transportation.

THE DOG DAYS.

Oppressive Midday Heat Followed by Refreshing Evening Breezes.

These hot Sundays are not conducive to much out-door activity in Reno until the shades of evening fall. The streets and sidewalks at midday hours are deserted. The horses tied to the awning posts look unhappy fighting flies, and the dogs, panting on the sidewalks, lol their tongues in weary distress. The people seek comfort in the shade, either at home or elsewhere, and the town has a deserted look. But the scene changes with the approach of evening, when the sidewalks swarm with people, devout or otherwise, wending their ways on devotion or pleasure bent and looking rejuvenated with the cool breezes of evening. When the evening trains arrive, passengers are amazed to see the crowds on the depot platform, for the people swarm there then, and it gives the town a metropolitan air.

Nevada Meets.

The Carson Appeal says: The Kaupisch Bros., who are about starting a creamery in the Carson Valley, have sent a ton of sugar beets to the Spreckels' sugar refinery in San Francisco for analysis. They have received word that the beets contain more saccharine matter than any yet tested at the refinery. Sugar beets can be raised in alkali soil without irrigation in this State.

Procure It Before Leaving Home.

Dr. M. J. Davis is a prominent physician of Lewis, Cass county, Iowa, and has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine at that place for the past thirty-five years. On the 26th of last May, while in Des Moines, en route to Chicago, he was suddenly taken with an attack of diarrhoea. Having said Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for some seventeen years, and knowing its reliability, he procured a 25 cent bottle, two doses of which completely cured him. ## A GREAT EMPORIUM.

The Boot and Shoe and Clothing Store of the State.

John Sunderland is noted far and wide, and all over the State of Nevada for being the most enterprising man in his line of business that our State ever had. He is never content with following in the old worn ruts of trade, but shows his enterprise—and, we may almost say, daring—in taking the lead of all others in similar business.

The merchant tailoring department which he has lately added to his clothing department can be classed as his latest and most deserving success. With extra facilities for purchasing and with skillful workmen, he is enabled to turn out work that takes rank with the best, and with the superior advantage of being fitted at home, and no danger of vexation over the chance of a misfit creating further delays.

The clothing department is also heavily stocked with fine lines of ready-made clothing, thus enabling anyone who is in haste to select clothing that is as fine as is sold anywhere in the land.
